

Jim and Ruth Ford

Jim and Ruth Ford took square dance lessons in 1963.

They served as Central District Presidents for 3 different terms. They also served in several different Oklahoma Square Dance Federation offices.

They were officers on the Oklahoma National Square Dance Committee when it was in Oklahoma City.

They also held several officer positions in the Oklahoma City Silver Spurs Square Dance Club. When that club folded they rejoined Fun Timers in Midwest City and served as Parliamentarians and Historians.

Jim was also a square dance caller. The Fords have been very active and leaders ever since in their local clubs, district, state and national square dancing.
